welcome from Pastor Stan

I believe our worship together is especially meaningful for it actually gives us a glimpse of heaven. As we bring our offerings of praise through music and prayer we are invited to look through the veil. We get to see what John saw in his revelation, ". . . I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb . . . and they cried out in a loud voice: 'Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne and to the Lamb.'" In our worship this morning I believe our voices will be raised all the way to heaven as we become part of that "great multitude" before the throne of God. In our worship we'll get more than just a glimpse of heaven, we'll get to be a part of it.

Pastor's study: John 11:1-6, 32-44

As Lazarus grew sick to the point of death, his sisters, Mary and Martha, turned to Jesus. They hoped that Jesus would come and heal Lazarus of his sickness. However, Jesus had an even greater healing in mind.

1.) In v. 6 we learn about Jesus' response to Lazarus' illness, "So when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was two more days . . ." How does the way in which Jesus postponed his response to the sister's request help up you understand your own prayer life?

2.) When he arrived at Lazarus' tomb, "Jesus wept (v.35)." Jesus clearly knew the outcome of this miracle and had already said, "This sickness will not end in death (v.4)." Since he knew the outcome, why do you think Jesus wept? How does his response influence your faith?

3.) In v. 43 Jesus went to Lazarus' tomb and "called in loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!'" Why did Jesus choose this way to heal Lazarus of his illness? How might this impact the way you pray?

4.) When Lazarus had been raised again to life, "Jesus said to them, 'Take off the grave clothes and let him go (v. 44)." Lazarus' resurrection is a foreshadowing of our own resurrection. What are some of the "old grave clothes" that you shed when you experienced your resurrection through salvation? Are there still some to be shed today? If so, what are they?
